- 3.3 If a Member of this Scheme ceases to be a member of the Main Scheme he or she shall cease membership of this Scheme.

4. Free cover for Children after the death of a spouse or Civil Partner

If, after a person becomes a Member of this Scheme but before his or her retirement:

5. Power to grant Survivors' and Children's Pensions

Subject to the provisions of this Scheme, on the death of a Contributing or Former Member (in this Scheme referred to as the "Deceased") to or in respect of whom a pension or death benefit has been, or is awarded, the Trustees shall grant:

- (a) where the Deceased leaves a spouse or Civil Partner, a pension to that spouse or Civil Partner in accordance with Rule 6 (in this Scheme referred to as a "Survivor's Pension"); and
- (b) where he or she is survived by one or more Children, a pension in respect of each such Child in accordance with Rule 7 (in this Scheme referred to as a "Children's Pension"), but any marriage or Civil Partnership of the Member which takes place after he or she had ceased to be a Contributing Member shall not be taken into account for the purposes of this Scheme, and any reference to a marriage, Civil Partnership, a spouse or the Children of the Deceased shall be construed accordingly.

6. Survivor's Pensions

- 6.1 A Survivor's Pension shall not be granted or paid under this Scheme:

- (a) if in the opinion of the Trustees the spouse or Civil Partner was at the time of the death of the Member cohabiting with a person other than the Deceased; or
- (b) in respect of any period after the said death during which the spouse or Civil Partner is to the knowledge of the Trustees remarried or in a different Civil Partnership or is, in the opinion of the Trustees, cohabiting with any person.

6.2 Notwithstanding sub-Rule 6.1, where:

- (a) a pension under this Scheme is not granted or ceases; and
- (b) at a subsequent date to the date of the marriage, Civil Partnership or cohabitation by reason of which the pension was not granted or ceased, the Trustees are of the opinion that the marriage, Civil Partnership or cohabitation has come to an end, or that there are compassionate grounds for the payment of pension,
- (c) the Trustees may, if they think fit, grant or re-grant, as may be appropriate, the pension as from:
 - (i) in case the marriage, Civil Partnership or cohabitation has in the opinion of the Trustee come to an end, the date on which the marriage, Civil Partnership or cohabitation ended; and
 - (ii) in any other case, a date not earlier than the date on which the relevant application is received by the Trustees.

6.3 Sub-Rule 6.2 does not apply in any case where the spouse or Civil Partner is entitled to benefit under this or any other public sector spouses' and children's pension scheme by virtue of the fact that the spouse of the second marriage or the Civil Partner of the second Civil Partnership was a Member of this Scheme.

6.4 Subject to sub-Rule 6.1, a Survivor's Pension may be paid for the whole of the period beginning on the death of the Deceased and ending with the death of the spouse or Civil Partner.

6.5 The rate of a Survivor's Pension shall be $1/80^{\text{th}}$ of the Deceased's pension multiplied by the number of complete years of Scheme Membership, subject to a maximum of $40/80^{\text{ths}}$.

6.6 Notwithstanding sub-Rule 6.5, where on the death of a Contributing Member or Former Member, other than a Former Member who qualifies for a Vested Benefit, a Survivor's Pension becomes payable to his or her spouse or Civil Partner, the rate of that pension may, in respect of the first month after his or her death, be increased to:

- (a) in case he or she dies while a Contributing Member, one-twelfth of the rate of his or her Pensionable Salary;
- (b) in case he or she dies after being granted a pension and the rate of pension payable to him or her on the date of his or her death is greater than the rate of Survivor's Pension otherwise payable under this Scheme, one-twelfth of the said rate of pension, but that the rate as so increased shall be reduced by the rate of any Children's Pensions payable under this Scheme.

7. Children's Pensions and beneficiaries

- 7.1 A pension may not be granted under this Scheme in respect of a Child:
- (a) because he or she is the Adopted Child of the Deceased and he or she was adopted by the Deceased after the date on which the Deceased ceased to be a Contributing Member; or
 - (b) because he or she is the step-Child of the Deceased, if the Deceased's marriage to, or Civil Partnership with, the Child's parent took place after the last day of the Deceased's membership of this Scheme.
- 7.2 A Child shall not be eligible for a Children's Pension in respect of more than one Member. Where there would, apart from this sub-Rule, be an eligibility for Children's Pension in respect of two or more Members, the Child will count as eligible in respect of one of them in the way which, in the opinion of the Trustees, will give the most favourable overall result for the Child or Children in question.

8. Children's Pensions, rate and mode of payment

- 8.1 A Children's Pension under this Scheme will be paid to the relevant Member's spouse if the eligible Children are in the spouse's care, and in case any Child in respect of whom the pension is payable is not in such care, the pension will be paid either to the Child or to such other person as the Trustees may determine. If the Children are in the care of more than one person different parts of the Children's Pension shall be paid to those persons in such proportions as the Trustees may determine. In all cases, the pension is to be applied for the benefit of the Children for whom it is granted.
- 8.2 A Children's Pension may only be paid in relation to a period subsequent to the death of the Deceased.
- 8.3 The rate of Children's Pension under this Scheme shall be:
- (a) where the Deceased leaves no spouse or, if the Deceased leaves a spouse and the spouse dies, after the spouse's death:
 - (i) where there is only one Child, $1/120^{\text{th}}$ of the Deceased's Pension multiplied by the number of complete years of Scheme Membership, subject to a maximum of $40/120^{\text{ths}}$;
 - (ii) where there are two or more Children, a rate in respect of each Child equivalent to F/G where F is $1/80^{\text{th}}$ of the Deceased's Pension multiplied by the number of complete years of Scheme Membership subject to a maximum of $40/80^{\text{ths}}$ and G is the number of Children;
 - (b) subject to sub-Rule 8.4, where the Deceased leaves a spouse:
 - (i) where there are not more than three Children, for each Child $1/240^{\text{th}}$ of the Deceased's Pension multiplied by the number of complete years of Scheme Membership subject to a maximum of $40/240^{\text{ths}}$;

- (ii) where there are more than 3 Children, a rate in respect of each Child equivalent to X/Y where X is $1/80^{\text{th}}$ of the Deceased's Pension multiplied by the number of complete years of Scheme Membership subject to a maximum of $40/80^{\text{ths}}$ and Y is the number of Children.
- 8.4
 - (a) Where the Children of the Deceased are at the time of, or at any time after, the Deceased's death in the care of some person other than the Deceased's spouse, the Trustees may, if they think fit, and for so long as the Children are in such care apply the rate of pension provided for in sub-Rule 8.3(a) notwithstanding that the spouse is still alive.
 - (b) Where some but not all of the Children of the Deceased are at the time of, or at any time after, the Deceased's death in the care of a person other than the Deceased's spouse, the rate of that portion of the Children's Pension which is payable in respect of the Children who are in the care of that person may be calculated by reference to the rates specified in sub-Rule 8.3(a). The amount of Children's Pension payable in respect of a Deceased by virtue of this sub-Rule shall not exceed one-half of the rate of the Deceased's Pension.
- 8.5 Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Rule, where:
 - (a) the Deceased leaves a surviving spouse; and
 - (b) either:
 - (i) no Survivor's Pension is granted to him or her under this Scheme; or
 - (ii) if one was so granted, it ceased to be paid before the spouse's death, then, no Children's Pension shall be payable under this Scheme as respects any period comprised within the lifetime of the spouse or within the time in respect of which no Survivor's Pension is payable, as may be appropriate, unless the Trustees in their absolute discretion decide that such a pension shall be so payable, and in case they shall so decide, they may if they think fit apply sub-Rule 8.4 as respects any such period.

- 8.6 References in this Rule 8 to the spouse of a Member shall be read as being references to the spouse or Civil Partner of the Member.
- 9. Payment of Pension

Any pension payable under this Scheme shall be paid by means of an electronic fund transfer and be paid monthly no later than the last day of each calendar month.
- 10. Periodic Contributions
 - 10.1 Contributions payable under this Rule are in this Scheme referred to as "Periodic Contributions" and shall be payable by a Member as follows:

- (a) the rate of the contribution shall be one per cent of:
 - (i) the amount of the Pensionable Salary from time to time payable to him or her; or
 - (ii) where he or she is in receipt of reduced wages because of absence from employment, the amount of the Pensionable Salary that would be payable to him or her if he or she were not so absent;
- (b) in respect of his or her Pensionable Salary during the period commencing on the date on which he or she becomes a Member for the purposes of this Scheme and ending when he or she ceases to be a Contributing Member; and
- (c) at such times and in such manner as the Trustees may determine.

10.2 No contributions shall be payable under this Scheme by a Member for any period which does not constitute Scheme Membership.

11. Refund of contributions

11.1 If a Member:

- (a) ceases to be a Contributing Member and was unmarried or was not a party to a Civil Partnership at all times during his or her Scheme Membership; or
- (b) ceases to be a Contributing Member otherwise than on death, retirement on pension or leaving service with entitlement to a Vested Benefit, having been married or party to a Civil Partnership at any time during the period or for a portion of the period which this Scheme applied to him or her,

then if his or her pensionable membership for superannuation purposes is not transferred to another organisation or service, the whole of his or her Periodic Contributions shall be returned to him or her or to his or her legal personal representative, and all entitlements and potential entitlements in respect of him or her under the terms of this Scheme shall cease.

11.2 In any case other than a case mentioned in sub-Rule 11.1(a) or 11.1(b), a Member on ceasing to be a Contributing Member may have returned to him or her, or if his or her membership ceases due to death, to his or her legal personal representative, such of those contributions, if any, beginning with his or her initial contributions and working forward, or, in the case of a Member covered by sub-Rule 11.2(b), his or her final contribution and working back, as is necessary to ensure that the period in respect of which such contributions are paid by him or her without being returned:

- (a) does not exceed 40 years; and
- (b) if he or she is widowed or becomes a surviving Civil Partner when ceasing to be a Contributing Member, does not exceed a period equal to the length of service on the date of his or her spouse's or Civil Partner's death

- 11.3 Where any contributions are returned under this Rule they shall be returned without interest and will be subject to deduction of tax at the appropriate rate.

12. Non-Periodic Contributions

- 12.1 Where a Member was married or was a party to a Civil Partnership throughout the period, or for a portion of the period, during which this Scheme applied to him or her and he or she ceases to be a Contributing Member due to:

- (a) death after at least five years' membership of this Scheme; or
- (b) retirement on pension; or
- (c) leaving service, except by reason of redundancy, with entitlement to a Vested Benefit, then unless the number of relevant years is nil, a contribution under this Rule will be payable by way of reduction in the amount of a Member's capital sum or death benefit or in such other manner as the Trustees may require.

- 12.2 A contribution under sub-Rule 12.1 shall be equal to 2 per cent of the annual amount of the Member's Pensionable Salary multiplied by the number of relevant years.

- 12.3 At the discretion of the Trustees and subject to conditions specified by them, a Member may elect to pay additional contributions at the rate equal to 2 per cent of the annual amount of the Member's Pensionable Salary, over the period of 12 months beginning on a date specified by the Trustees, being a date not earlier than the date of the election, and in case one or more such additional contributions are made, this Rule shall apply to the person by whom the contribution or contributions is or are made subject to the following modification, namely that in calculating what is the number of relevant years that number shall be reduced by one for every contribution made by the person under this sub-Rule.

- 12.4 In this Rule, the "number of relevant years" means Scheme Membership, subject to a maximum of 40 years, less the number of years for which Periodic Contributions have been paid and are not returnable.

- 12.5 Where a Member to whom this Rule applies gave service with an organisation other than the CIÉ in respect of which an additional benefit entitlement is granted under the Main Scheme, any portion of that service during which he or she paid Periodic Contributions under a scheme similar to this Scheme may, provided that those contributions were not refunded to him or her, be excluded in determining the number of relevant years under sub-Rule 12.4.

- 12.6 A contribution under sub-Rule 12.1 shall be payable by a Member whose services are dispensed with because of redundancy and who qualifies for a superannuation allowance under the Main Scheme as follows. At the date of his or her retirement he or she shall pay a further contribution amounting to 1.5% of the annual rate of his or her Pensionable Salary at that date for each year between the age at which he or she retires and his or her Normal Age of Retirement and the pension or pensions in respect of his or her spouse and Children payable upon his or her death shall be the pension or pensions which would have been payable if the Member had the service which he or she would have had if he or she had remained in membership to his or her Normal Age of Retirement.

13. Purchase of additional service under this Scheme
